Governance

Embracing the principles of good governance is paramount for our institution St. Joseph's College of Education for Women' Guntur to thrive and fulfill our mission effectively. As we embark on this journey, we aim to foster transparency, accountability, inclusivity, and integrity across all aspects of our operations. By prioritizing these values, we envision a college that not only excels academically but also cultivates a culture of ethical leadership and social responsibility among its faculty, staff, and students. Together, we uphold the standards of good governance to ensure the holistic development and success of our college community. Our college is a Roman Catholic minority institution under the management of the Society of Jesus Mary Joseph, registered Under the Society Registration act 1001 of 1860. Our College was established in 1946. Since then we are following principles of good governance from time to time as per the changing needs of the society at large, which is depicted in the following flow Chart.
